

BRIEFCASE

May 21, 2011|

Awards, honors

» Presbyterian

Villages of Michigan has been named the 2011 employer of the year by Operation ABLE of Michigan, an affiliated company of Spectrum Human Services Inc. This honor is given to an organization that demonstrates through hiring, promotion and recognition that they value older workers and through their products and services contribute to the well-being of older adults.

Also honored was

Cheryl Sonnenberg, 53, of New Baltimore who is the wellness supervisor/volunteer coordinator at the The Village of East Harbor in Chesterfield Township. She was one of two recipients of the Most ABLE award.

In addition to the Chesterfield Township facility, Presbyterian Villages of Michigan also owns the Village of Lake Huron Woods in Fort Gratiot.